

We are hiring a

(PARTLY) QUALIFIED EUROPEAN PATENT ATTORNEY

In view of its expansion, De Clercq & Partners is recruiting an energetic and highly skilled (partly) Qualified European Patent Attorney to join the team.

ABOUT THE JOB

- Managing a worldwide patent portfolio
- Drafting and reviewing patent applications and prosecution thereof
- Assessing and advising on issues such as freedom to operate, alleged infringement and IP disputes
- IP due diligence and strategic advice on IP matters
- Handling oppositions, appeals and litigations

ABOUT YOU

- Fully or partially Qualified as European Patent Attorney, or willing to complete the training
- MA or PhD degree in Engineering, Physics, Chemistry or Computer Sciences
- Fluent in Dutch and English
- Excellent writing and oral communication skills
- Proactive attitude with the ability to prioritize and take initiative
- Ability to handle confidential cases in a discrete manner

OUR OFFER

- Premium working conditions and solid training opportunities
- Part-time teleworking, choice of location between our 3 offices
- Great fringe benefits
- Fantastic colleagues and regular team building activities

Are you the right person for this job?

Send your CV and motivation by e-mail to jobs@dcp-ip.com

De Clercq & Partners is an intellectual property firm with offices in Sint-Martens-Latem, Leuven and Hasselt (Belgium) serving both local and international clients. The firm maintains a TIER 1 top ranking and is one of the largest intellectual property firms in Belgium.

