

Graduate Mechanical Engineer

Scope of Activities

Fluor Engineering NV in Antwerp is looking for a Junior Mechanical Engineer

The Mechanical engineer is responsible for the specification of mechanical equipment in accordance with client requirements, authority regulations etc. responsible for the complete cycle of equipment specification, supplier selection, purchase of equipment, supplier drawing review, equipment acceptance and delivery to site, site (erection) support and turn-over. Also the responsible as originating engineer for quality, cost and schedule activities.

Key Responsibilities

- Planning and organizing the work
- Writing and reviewing mechanical specifications
- Procurement of mechanical equipment
- Management of suppliers (quality, cost, schedule)
- Maintaining schedules and equipment estimates
- Cooperate with client, third parties and project disciplines/field

Basic Job requirements

- Bachelor or Master degree in Mechanical Engineering

Other Job requirements

- Due to the fact that both written and oral communication with many of our Client's personnel in our working area is in Dutch and English, candidates shall be fluent in both Dutch and English;
- Strong interpersonal skills.
- Willingness to travel